A MESSAGE FROM THE ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR

I am pleased to transmit the Alaska Court System's Annual Statistical Report for fiscal year 2009.

In FY09, trial court disposition rates rose while filings fell, each by 1%. Criminal case filings were down, -8% for felonies and -4% for misdemeanors. Property crime surpassed violent crime this year to become the largest component of the felony caseload, comprising nearly a third of all felonies. Delinquency filings showed the sharpest decline (-15%). The greatest increase in filings involved domestic relations cases (7%). Probate and general civil case filings each grew by 3%.

Trial courts aspire to a clearance rate of at least 100% of cases (disposing of at least as many cases as are filed in a given period). In FY09, trial courts achieved a clearance rate of 101%. In superior court trial sites, that translated to 1,267 filings and 1,281 dispositions per judicial position annually.

This report reflects several new features that were introduced last year:

- Three out of four judicial districts are now using a modern, computerized case management system, which enables the court system to gradually move to a statistical reporting framework recommended by the National Center for State Courts.

- The report shows actual filings at each court location instead of reporting superior court cases only at locations with a resident superior court judge.

- To make the information more accessible and reduce printing and mailing costs, the court's annual statistical reports are now available on line: http://www.courts.alaska.gov

We appreciate the resources provided by the Alaska Legislature to accomplish our mission. The Alaska Court System remains committed to providing a responsive, efficient and accessible forum for the just resolution of all cases that come before the courts.

Sincerely,

Christine Johnson
Administrative Director

SUPREME COURT ACTIVITY

Filings: During FY09, 397 cases were filed in the supreme court. Appeal filings increased by 5 percent, while petitions for hearing were up 7 percent and petitions for review increased 11 percent from the previous year. The category that includes bar matters, federal certification matters, and original applications decreased by 24 percent. For details about filings in various categories of cases from FY06 through FY09, see page 3.

Dispositions: The supreme court disposed of 424 cases in FY09, a 5 percent decrease from the 448 dispositions in FY08. The court issued 104 full opinions, 36 MO&Js, and three published orders. For details about dispositions by case type in FY09, see page 6. For comparisons of dispositions by case type from FY06 through FY09, see page 3.

Pending Caseload: On June 30, 2009, 343 cases were pending, 8 percent fewer than the 371 cases pending at the end of FY08. Sixty-five percent of these pending cases were at a stage prior to submission to the court (filing pending, awaiting settlement conference, awaiting record or transcripts, awaiting briefs, awaiting argument or conference, or awaiting response to a petition). None were stayed or were awaiting rehearing or record return prior to closing, and the remaining 35 percent were under advisement (submitted to the court but awaiting circulation of a draft opinion, publication of an opinion, or decision on a petition). For a comparison of cases pending at year's end according to case type from FY06 through FY09, see page 3. For the status of cases pending at the end of FY09 according to case type, see page 7.

Time Required for Disposition of Cases: In fifty percent of appeals decided by opinion or MO&J, the time from submission (usually the date of oral argument or conference on the briefs) to publication of a decision was 5.5 months or less. Fifty percent of petitions, bar matters, and original applications were completed (from opening to closing) in 2.9 months or less. Additional information about time to disposition can be found at page 8.

COURT OF APPEALS ACTIVITY

Filings: During FY09, 292 cases were filed in the court of appeals. Two hundred thirty merit appeals were filed in FY09, a 6 percent increase from the previous year. Sentence appeal filings were up 23 percent, from 22 in FY08 to 27 in FY09. Thirty-four petitions for review and petitions for hearing were filed, a 31 percent increase from FY08. For a comparison of filings in various case categories from FY06 through FY09, see Table IX.

Dispositions: The court of appeals disposed of 286 cases in FY09. The court issued 50 full opinions and 142 memorandum opinions. For details about the types and caseload composition of dispositions in FY09, see page 14. For comparisons of dispositions by case type from FY06 through FY09, see page 11.

Pending Caseload: On June 30, 2009, 688 cases were pending before the court of appeals, a 12 percent increase from the 613 cases pending at the end of FY08. Eighty-seven percent of these cases were at a stage prior to submission to the court (filing pending, awaiting record, awaiting briefing, awaiting conference or oral argument, or awaiting response to a petition). One percent were awaiting rehearing or record return prior to closing, and the remaining 12 percent were under advisement (submitted to the court but awaiting circulation of a draft opinion, filing of an opinion, or a decision on a petition). Many of the pending cases were stayed awaiting decisions in the lead cases dealing with issues relating to the United States Supreme Court's decision in Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004), regarding the constitutionality of sentencing guidelines. For a comparison of cases pending at year's end according to case type from FY06 through FY09, see page 9. For the status of cases pending at the end of FY09 according to case type, see page 15.

Trial Court Activity

Filings: During FY09, 154,543 cases were filed in the trial courts, a one percent decrease from 155,868 filings in FY08. Statewide felony filings were down eight percent. This is the first time statewide felony filings have decreased since they went down (also eight percent) in FY01.

Dispositions: The trial courts disposed of 156,329 cases in FY09, an increase of one percent from the 153,883 dispositions reported in FY08. To reduce the backlog of cases awaiting disposition, courts aspire to have a clearance rate of 100% or higher, which means that they have cleared (i.e., disposed of) at least as many cases as were filed in the period. The clearance rate for trial court cases was 101.2% in FY09.

Explanatory Notes:

Felony Filings: Most felony cases are initiated in district court, then transferred to superior court after indictment by a grand jury or the filing of an information. Since most of the activity in a felony case typically occurs in superior court, felony cases are reported as superior court filings regardless of where they began. Tables showing felony cases initiated in the district courts are provided for informational purposes (pages 103 and 104). These tables are not included in the district court totals, but should be considered when evaluating the workload of a district court.

Criminal Case Categorization: Criminal cases are categorized based on the most serious charge filed. For example, if a defendant is charged with a felony and two misdemeanors, the case is counted as a felony. If the felony charge is subsequently reduced to a misdemeanor, the case type does not change; the case is still categorized as a felony for reporting purposes.

Reopened Cases: The criminal filing statistics in this report include only new case filings and do not include petitions to revoke probation or other proceedings that cause the court to reopen a case. Petitions to revoke probation significantly impact the trial court workload. Anchorage judges, for example, handled 2,733 felony petitions to revoke probation and 4,761 misdemeanor petitions to revoke probation in FY09.

Domestic Violence Cases: Domestic violence and stalking cases may be filed in either district or superior court, but district courts handle the vast majority. To make it easier to see the total number of domestic violence cases filed, domestic violence and stalking cases filed in the superior court are counted with the district court cases.

Criminal cases typically contain multiple charges. The Alaska Court System categorizes cases for reporting purposes based on the most serious charge.

In FY07 the Alaska Court System changed the way it categorizes criminal cases for annual reporting. The categories now conform to the National Center for State Courts' national model for caseload statistical reporting. This change is intended to make Alaska's statistics easier to compile, understand, and compare to those of other jurisdictions.

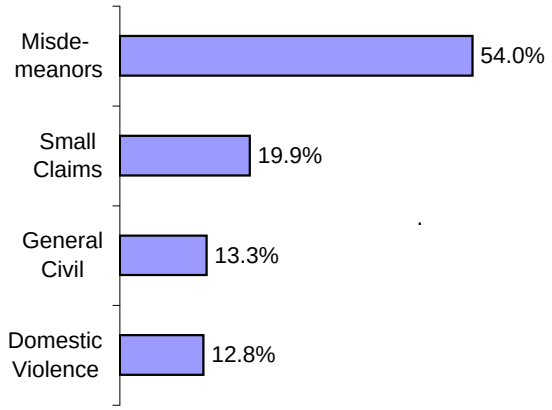
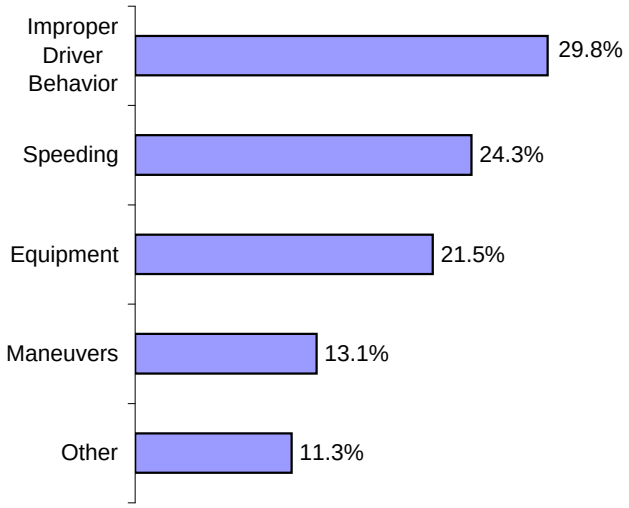
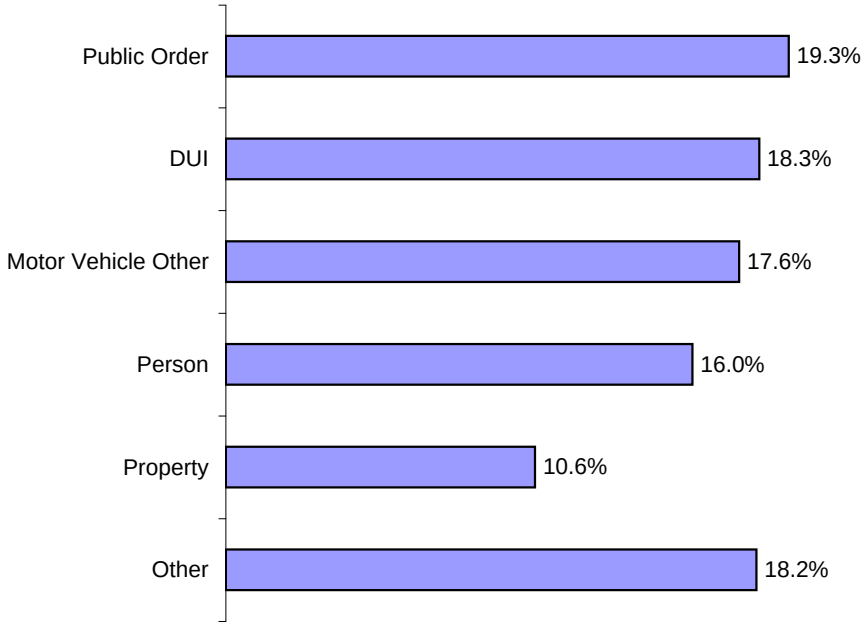
Non-Minor Offense Filings



Minor Offense Filings



Misdemeanor Filings



This chart analyzes the composition of cases filed in district court during FY09. Misdemeanor cases represent approximately 54% of the non-traffic district court caseload. Approximately 36.4% of all misdemeanor cases involve driving while intoxicated or another criminal traffic violation (for example, driving with suspended license).

Criminal cases typically contain multiple charges. The Alaska Court System categorizes cases for reporting purposes based on the most serious charge.

In FY07 the Alaska Court System changed the way it categorizes criminal cases for annual reporting. The categories now conform to the National Center for State Courts' national model for caseload statistical reporting. This change is intended to make Alaska's statistics easier to compile, understand, and compare to those of other jurisdictions.

In FY07 the Alaska Court System changed the way it categorizes minor offenses for annual reporting. The traffic categories now conform to the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) Code Dictionary. This change is intended to make Alaska's statistics easier to compile, understand and compare to those of other jurisdictions.
