

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA AT ANCHORAGE

In the Matter of: _____)

A minor under 18 years of age. _____)

Date of Birth: _____)

CASE NO. _____

ORDER FOR TEMPORARY DETENTION

The parties listed on the attached Clerk Notes appeared before the court on _____.

Based upon the evidence presented, the court finds as follows:

1. There is probable cause to believe that the minor has committed a delinquent act, or the minor has been adjudicated delinquent or in violation of a probation/conduct agreement.
2. Detention of the minor is necessary to ensure the minor's appearance at subsequent court hearings or to protect the minor or others, as reflected by the oral findings entered on record and contained in the Clerk Notes. No less restrictive alternative to detention exists.
3. It is contrary to the best interests of the minor to be returned home at this time.

IT IS ORDERED THAT the above-named minor is committed to the temporary custody of the Division of Juvenile Justice for detention in a locked or secure facility until further order of the court.
