

4. Incapacity.

It has been shown by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent is incapacitated as defined in AS 13.26.005(5). [Someone is incapacitated if his or her ability to receive and evaluate information or communicate decisions is so impaired that the person cannot provide for their physical health or safety without court-ordered help (including health care, food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene, and protection).]

The respondent agrees to the finding of incapacity as defined above. AS 13.26.113(b).

Full Guardian. The respondent is totally without the capacity to care for himself or herself, and a combination of alternatives to guardianship and the appointment of a partial guardian is not feasible or adequate to meet the respondent's needs. Therefore, the court will appoint a full guardian. AS 13.26.113(f).

The respondent lacks the ability to provide for himself or herself in the following areas:

- (1) Medical care.
- (2) Mental health treatment (if any is required).
- (3) Housing.
- (4) Personal care, educational and vocational services necessary for the physical and mental welfare of the respondent.
- (5) Application for health and accident insurance and any other private or governmental benefits to which the respondent may be entitled.
- (6) Physical and mental examinations necessary to determine the respondent's medical and mental health treatment needs.
- (7) Control and management of the respondent's property and affairs in order to pay for the cost of services.

AS 13.26.116(a)(2).

Powers of a Conservator. A basis for giving the guardian the powers of a conservator exists because it has been established that the respondent:

- (1) is unable to effectively manage his or her property and affairs, and
- (2) has property that will be wasted or used up unless someone manages it. AS 13.26.195(c); AS 13.26.165(2).

As required by AS 13.26.195(d), the court investigated the alternatives to appointing a conservator and concludes that the powers of a conservator should be given to the guardian because the alternatives under AS 13.26.205 are not adequate to protect the respondent's estate.

5. _____ is suitable, under AS 13.26.145, to act as the respondent's guardian, and
- has priority for appointment under AS 13.26.145.
 - is best qualified among those having equal priority for appointment.
 - does not have priority for appointment, but this appointment is in the respondent's best interest
 - because _____
- _____
- _____
- for the reasons stated in the attached written findings. AS 13.26.145(f)

This person or entity is also competent to act as the respondent's conservator, and

- has priority for appointment under AS 13.26.210.
 - is best qualified among those having equal priority for appointment.
 - does not have priority for appointment, but this appointment is in the respondent's best interest
 - because _____
- _____
- _____
- for the reasons stated in the attached written findings. AS 13.26.210(f)

6. Consideration of Respondent's Preference.

- a. Pursuant to the AS 13.26.113(g) requirement that the court consider the respondent's preference in selecting a guardian, the court
- has considered the respondent's preference.
 - has not considered the respondent's preference in guardians for the reasons stated on the record in the attached findings.
- b. Pursuant to the AS 13.26.195(d) requirement that the court, to the maximum extent possible, consult with the respondent in determining what action should be taken with respect to appointment of a conservator, the court
- has consulted with the respondent about whether the guardian should be given the powers of a conservator.
 - has not consulted with the respondent concerning the conservator issue for the reasons stated on the record in the attached findings.

7. License. The guardian

- has the required professional license under AS 08.26.
- is the Public Guardian.
- is exempt from the license requirement under AS 08.26.180 because the individual is employed by a regulated financial institution and will provide these guardian services in the course of this employment.
- is not engaged in the business of providing guardian or conservator services and, therefore, is not required to be licensed; and has has not satisfied the one-hour mandatory education requirement on the basics of guardianship and conservatorship. AS 13.26.145(c) and 13.26.210(g).
