Request for Copy of Text File Generated During Proceedings Before Judge Ray

Pursuant to Special Order of the Chief Justice No. 6253, the electronic translation text files of all hearings are confidential as defined in ACS Administrative Rule 37.5 (access is restricted to the parties in the case, counsel of record, individuals with a written order from the court authorizing access, and court personnel for case processing purposes only). Access to the electronic translation text file is provided within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the day's court proceedings for the sole purpose of allowing parties and counsel of record to review the accuracy and completeness of the text file.

Please submit your request to the clerk of court.
