INFORMATION FOR DEFENDANT

When you report for fingerprinting, you must give this order to the fingerprint facility. You must also show them (1) a copy of the charging document in this case, and (2) photo identification such as your driver's license, Alaska ID card or other photo ID which includes your full name, date of birth and physical description.

You must comply with the rules of the fingerprint facility while you are at the facility. This may include requirements that you not be under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and not possess a weapon. If the prints will be taken in a secure section of the facility, you may be required to submit to a limited search.

You may have to wait to be printed as time permits or you may have to return at a later time if the facility's workload or emergencies require this.

FINGERPRINT COMPLETION

(Sign and return to Defendant)

The above-named defendant's fingerprints have been taken in connection with this case.
